

Lowes's Hazmat Codes and requirements

---

Lowes's Hazmat Codes

All item need an Hazmat Code associated with it (mandatory). Each item should have only one code.

N : Item does not have a Safety Data Sheet (SDS) and is not regulated by Transport Canada under the Transportation of Dangerous Goods Act.

1 : Item has a SDS but is not regulated by Transport Canada under the Transportation of Dangerous Goods Act.

2 : Item has a SDS and is shipped as Limited Quantity (LTD. QTY.)/Consumer Commodity as define by Transport Canada under the Transportation of Dangerous Goods Act. No shipping paper is required if material is not a marine pollutant. No reportable quantity restrictions.

3 : Item has a SDS and is shipped as Limited Quantity (LTD. QTY.)/Consumer Commodity or as Reportable Quantity (fully regulated) as define by Transport Canada under the Transportation of Dangerous Goods Act. Restrictions requires special shipping papers to transport, training, etc. when shipped as Reportable Quantity.

4 : Item has a SDS and is shipped with Reportable Quantity (fully regulated) as define by Transport Canada under the Transportation of Dangerous Goods Act. Restrictions always requires special shipping papers to transport, training, etc. for this item.

Other requirements regarding Hazmat Products:

- Providing Hazmat Codes is mandatory for all item.
- SDS are mandatory for all item with Hazmat Codes 1 to 4.
- SDS are mandatory for all item regulated under WHMIS.
- SDS are mandatory for all item regulated under the Consumer product safety acts.
- SDS are mandatory for all pesticide item.
- The SDS provided must comply to WHMIS – 2015 GHS requirements.
- Section 14 of the SDS must be completed.
- All SDS must be provided in French and English. Both version must be the same.
- It is the vendor responsibility to notify Lowes Canada of any change with the product composition and provide updated SDS accordingly.
- It is the vendor responsibility to know all regulation that applies to his item.