

Compliance Lowe's Vendor Code of Conduct

This Vendor Code of Conduct ("Code") applies to all vendors who provide goods and services ("Vendors") to Lowe's Companies, Inc., or to any of its subsidiaries, affiliates, and allied businesses ("Lowe's"). Vendors must be committed to the highest standards of ethical conduct in their business practices. This Code sets forth the basic requirements that all Vendors must comply with in order to do business with Lowe's. If Lowe's believes that any Vendor has violated this Code, Lowe's has the right to terminate its business relationship with the Vendor and to proceed to secure any and all rights or remedies available. Lowe's reserves the right to make reasonable changes to the Code's requirements, and the latest version of the Code can be found on Lowe's websites and vendor portals.

A. Business Integrity and Ethics

- 1. Compliance with Laws and Lowe's Policies: Vendors must fully comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and with Lowe's policies published on its vendor portals, including but not limited to, the Human Rights Policy, Safer Chemicals Policy, Conflict Minerals Policy, and Wood Sourcing Policy. To the extent that Lowe's policies impose a higher standard than what is required by any applicable law or regulation, Lowe's policies shall prevail.
- 2. Conflicts-of-Interest: Vendors shall not engage in any activity which could create either the appearance of, or an actual conflict-of-interest, between the personal interests of Lowe's associates or their immediate family members and Lowe's interests.
- 3. Gifts and Benefits: Lowe's prohibits Vendors from giving gifts or entertainment exceeding nominal value to Lowe's associates or their immediate family members. The following types of gifts and entertainment may never be offered, regardless of value: cash or cash equivalents (i.e. gift cards); gifts that are or could be illegal; gifts or entertainment (including meals, transportation and travel accommodations) offered in connection with an inspection, audit, or during a bidding process involving the Vendor, or anything offered to an agent or consultant working on behalf of Lowe's in connection with an inspection, audit, or bidding process involving the Vendor. This policy remains in effect during traditional gift-giving seasons.
- 4. Former Lowe's Associates: For a period of one year following separation, Lowe's will not conduct business with a former Lowe's employee operating on Vendor's behalf if the business relates to an area in which the former employee worked or had influence while employed by Lowe's.
- 5. Sourcing: Lowe's encourages all Vendors supplying goods and services to Lowe's U.S. and Canada stores or facilities, to share Lowe's commitment, where possible, to utilizing small, woman and/or minority-owned businesses for subcontracting opportunities in connection with Lowe's contracts. For information regarding this requirement, Vendors supplying or seeking to supply goods and services to U.S. stores or facilities should consult Lowe's Supplier Diversity Program.
- 6. Conflict Minerals: Vendors shall avoid using columbite-tantalite (tantalum), cassiterite (tin), wolframite (tungsten) or gold, determined by the Secretary of State to be financing conflict in the Democratic Republic of the Congo or an adjoining country ("Conflict Minerals") in any products that are sold to Lowe's. To comply with this obligation, Vendors shall conduct due diligence, maintain records, and provide Lowe's with verification of the source of the materials used in any products, as well as any additional relevant information at Lowe's request.
- 7. Anti-Corruption: Vendors must not tolerate, permit, sanction, or engage in bribery, corruption or unethical practices whether in dealings with public officials, or individuals in the private sector. Vendors must comply with all applicable anti-corruption laws and regulations, including the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA"), in connection with the provision of any goods or services to Lowe's.
